

Reconciliation Manningham Inc. together with
A GRAND STAND for the Environment Inc. & Manningham City Council

Present a cultural and environmental heritage event!

-Sharing Country-

The Yarra Valley was the Kakaḍu of the South!

When: Wednesday 4th November 2015
Where: Playhouse Theatre 675 Doncaster Rd.
Time: 12.30 to 3pm

You and your family will hear and experience:

- Local Aboriginal history, story and ceremony.
- How Wurundjeri people managed the environment.
- The Eight Wurundjeri Seasons in the Yarra Valley.
- The environmental management issues we face today.

Presenters include:

Wurundjeri Elder Uncle Bill Nicholson
Local author and historian Dr. Jim Poulter
Naturalist Don Butcher

Educational materials and a copy of Jim's paper on the Eight Wurundjeri Seasons will be available free to all attending

Bookings are essential. Call Bridget on 9812 0588

This project made possible through the generous assistance of Manningham City Council's Small Grants Program